EAGLES' HOPE CHARITY FOUNDATION: This is a Covenant University Alumni Initiative created to affect lives positively, especially the under privileged in the society, and to impart the young generation.

ABOUT THE H.O.P.E. FOUNDATION

Eagles' HOPE Charity Foundation (H.O.P.E) is a collection of young, passionate and service-driven individuals who believe that we have been raised up to raise others up, being blessed with not only material but immaterial blessings, to be a blessing; and helped by God to help other people. At H.O.P.E, we believe that by virtue of each one's heart, knowledge, education, experience and skills, we can be a part of helping other people excel, of birthing change, of lifting others and certainly, of changing our world. In her mission to help other people excel, H.O.P.E has the following initiative:

- CITY Homes: This is a mind reorientation programme for care homes (remand, orphanages, old people's home).

- CITY Schools: This aims at re-orientating the minds of young teenagers ; a leadership and Self-development training for secondary school students and people in homes (remand, orphanages etc)
- A leadership camp for Teenagers (Student), where leadership and life building values can be instilled in a creative, impactful and fun filled way.

ACTIVITIES: Sports and Recreation –Formal trainings on leadership and personal development–Workshop Session (fashion design, etc) –Social Activities (Variety Night, Movie Night)
Competitions (Business Plan competition, Speak for Change)

DO YOU WANT TO BE A PART OF THIS: THEN BE A "VOLUNTEER

iRespond: The iRespond initiative was initiated with the goal of encouraging people to respond to the (dire, life-threatening) needs of others- especially in times of natural disasters.

DODOS: David Oyedepo Day of Service is a day set apart for all eagles, sons and daughters of the Chancellor, in and around the world, to do a notable good in their community to mark the Chancellor's birthday.

Tellavision: This is a social media campaign set to transmit positive values and change to the young generation

H.O.P.E Corpers: Corpers can be a part of HOPE in two ways:-

1. Be a C.I.T.Y facilitator
 - You can facilitate C.I.T.Y classes in the school you are posted to or in your community.
 - You would be given a letter of engagement and the CITY curriculum. (This can be done individually or in group)
2. GRANT: Community project
 - Corpers can apply for grants to carry out community impact project
 - The grants is a sum of N50,000 and a total of 6 corpors will be awarded this fund, based on application and quality of project (This can be done individually or in group)

The existence of an active alumni association has proven to be crucial for the development and proper functioning of a University.

THE ESSENCE OF AN ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The purpose of our Alumni Association is to promote the welfare of the University and to establish a mutually beneficial relationship between the alumni and the University.

ABOUT CU ALUMNI

Vision: To advance the Covenant University culture by building networks of change.

Mission: To create a world class contribution driven alumni network and help evolve a world class alma mater. To contribute to community development and societal growth by affecting programmes and capacity development initiatives. To influence nation building and socio economic revival by a programmed emphasis on moral significance and execution of lifelong development initiative.

PROGRAMMES & ACTIVITIES

In order to achieve the stated vision and mission of the Association, we operate a structure that empowers us for success:

- Chapter Formation
- Career Services
- Student Support Services
- Community Development
- Eagles Summit
- Social Function e.g. Luncheons, Concerts, Sports etc

CHAPTER FORMATION

The Chapter provides opportunities for Alumni to participate in social, recreational and educational programmes that encourage professional and social networking. Chapters, throughout the country and outside, enable Alumni to remain close to their alma mater despite the geographical separation and offer Alumni Association programmes in their local areas. Chapters also provide Alumni with contact with other Alumni through networking and social functions.
